MCCM Celebrates 40th Anniversary

McConville, Considine, Cooman & Morin, P.C. is proud to celebrate the law firm's 40th anniversary. Looking back, soon after the law firm's inception, two of its partners, Mike McConville and Kevin Cooman, met with a new client - an elderly widow - at her home to discuss her estate plan and need for a new will. They spent an hour or so getting to know one another over coffee at her kitchen table, with legal advice woven into the conversation. At the end of the conference, the woman expressed how pleased she was with "her lawyers." "Why," she said, "You're almost like real people."

That philosophy - that its attorneys are "real people" able to communicate and empathize while identifying clients' legal needs and solving their problems - has been a touchstone of McConville, Considine, Cooman and Morin, P.C. for forty years, and contributed immeasurably to the firm's success across a broad range of practice areas.

The expertise of the firm's attorneys includes business transactions and compliance counseling across industries and professions ranging from manufacturing to health care. MCCM's municipal work involves the representation of local towns and fire districts. The firm's litigation attorneys handle civil disputes in New York's state, federal and bankruptcy courts, including contract and commercial claims of all types, and serious personal injury matters. A mainstay of the firm's practice remains estate and elder care planning, and estate administration.

Summer camps at Ladybugs Play!

Ladybugs Play is excited to announce the addition of summer camps! As with open play, our mission is to provide children with a fun, safe and engaging environment while also guiding them through organized group activities that foster a cohesive learning and playing environment.

Each camp will run M, W, F from 9:30am-12:00pm. Drop off begins at 9:20 and pick up is promptly at 12:00. Our facility will be closed for open play during this time so we can dedicate the entire facility to our campers. In order to ensure the best experience, our camps are broken down by age. We have two camps available: Laugh and Learn Camp and Get Up and Go Camp. Contact us for more info!

Infinit Technology Solutions gives back

Infinit Technology Solutions has been blessed with success from our clients both locally and those across the country. Part of our mission is to never forget how grateful we are for those relationships, many of whom have trusted us to provide them our Advanced IT Services. With that in mind we made a choice several years ago to give back to organizations in our community that are making a difference, with a focus on Children, Hunger and Veterans. As April is all about the children, we support the McMahon Ryan Child Advocacy Center's efforts healing abused children and raising awareness, by participating in their planting of blue pinwheels campaign.

MUSIC MOMENTUM for RAMP

April was chocked full of performance opportunities for RAMP students. RAMP piano instructor and past president of The Rochester Piano Teachers Guild had eight of her students perform at the American Composer series at the beautiful Linehan Chapel at Nazareth College. Students not only performed, but also received a prize from FJH Publishing, had photographs taken with the guest composers, spoke with the participants and autographed the student's music.

RAMP also held their Spring Coffeehouse event, that included three of Garry Manuel's guitar students performing cover tunes as well as original compositions. One of the students also takes voice lessons as well. It was an intimate gathering with the focus clearly upon the music. The performers were teens and an adult Yes! Adults have an opportunity to perform as well. Some of our students have begun performing professionally at local clubs as well.
