Fairport High School's Career Exploration Center Named Business of the Month

The Fairport-Perinton community is known for its cohesiveness, which you can find evidence of through the Fairport-Perinton Chamber of Commerce. Annually, the Village, Town, and Schools jointly present to a crowd of over 100 attendees. The Career Exploration Center, housed in the high school, is an active member of the Chamber. And, the Superintendent participates in Chamber events as well. This month, The Career Exploration Center has been named the Chamber Business of the Month.

Succession Planning with McConville Considine Cooman & Morin, P.C.

Michael McConville, Amy Varel, and Dan Williford presented to the annual membership meeting, issues related to business succession planning. Dan presented first, discussing the positives, but also the many pitfalls of continuing to work without a succession plan in place, particularly how it will affect the administration of your estate. Amy presented next, highlighting legal options that exist in order to transition your business effectively to the next generation, including buy/sell agreements. Mike closed the presentation by discussing the difficulties that clients face when deciding who is best equipped to take over a business and the psychological hurdles business owners experience when choosing a successor. Mike provided many personal anecdotes from client circumstances drawing from his over 35 years of legal practice.

Empty Bowl Painting Event

Every year I support the Family Catholic Center of Rochester Empty Bowl Charity Event. Its purpose is to bring the awareness of families here in Monroe County, who are starving.

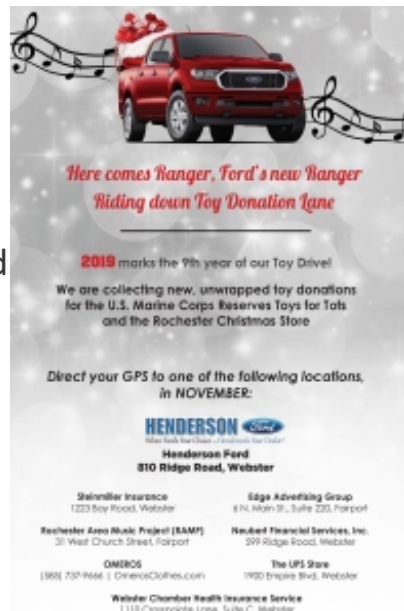

No one should go hungry, especially children. Please help our charitable cause. Please join us in our donation to the Empty Bowl Event.

~~~~ Come to the Studio & Paint a Bowl for only $10.00!!~~~~
Great thing to do as a family, team building, scouts, etc...
Our Goal is 100 Bowls by December 1st

Cosmetic Acupuncture & Infrared Sauna Therapy Featured in Open House

Did you miss our Open House? Watch for the next one! Perinton Family Acupuncture held an open house to provide information on anti-aging treatments done naturally, including cosmetic acupuncture and infrared sauna therapy. Attendees learned how these therapies help reduce wrinkles, brighten facial complexion, improve muscle tone and slow the signs of aging. You too can tour the acupuncture clinic, meet the practitioner, and view their state-of-the-art full-spectrum infrared sauna. You can find us at: 6800 Pittsford-Palmyra Road, Suite 350 Cedarwood Office Park, Fairport, NY 14450 Call 585-598-3866 or info@PerintonFamilyAcupuncture.com to set up your visit.
